Internet contract reference

Important notes:

- The payment by installments refers to the object of purchase. The monthly installments will be charged on the PhoneWorld LLC bill for the Internet contract. The payment by installments is free of interests.
- The customer has the right to redeem the outstanding installments at any time at once.
- The payment by installments agreement is depending on the existence of the Internet contract. The cancellation of the Internet contract or a change of the owner causes an automatic cancellation of the payment by installments agreement. In this case all open installments are due immediately.
- The customer is owner of the device. Theft, cession or transfer of ownership of the device will not relieve the customer from the performance of this contract or the payment by installments agreement.
- PhoneWorld LLC reserves the right to refuse requests and to perform a credit check.
- The billing of the monthly installments starts after the delivery of the device.
- In principle, there is no right of return for devices.
- In addition, 10 Fr. will be charged for shipping.
